P. Buckley Moss Museum Waynesboro, VA

We have a few spots open to see the home base of P. Buckley Moss; one of Virginia's most famous artists. We will be touring her museum on one of the rare occasions when her special barn is open and the artist herself will be there showing and signing her work! So join us for this special day when we might actually meet the artist, and enjoy a beautiful trip to the heart of the Shenandoah Valley on the same day. We will stop for lunch "on your own" and then stop by the Artisans Center of Virginia before heading home. Cancellation deadline is April 5.

Arlington National Cemetery Arlington, VA

We'll step off the bus and into our nation's history and remember the American patriots, both humble and well-known, whose final resting place is in the wooded hills of Arlington. From the Visitors Center we will board tourmobiles for a riding tour throughout the grounds. You may hop on and off the bus as you wish; stops include the Kennedy gravesite, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldiers, and Arlington House, the Robert E. Lee Memorial. After spending the morning at Arlington, we will head to Alexandria where you may meander through the streets and enjoy lunch at one of the many restaurants of Old Town. Wear comfortable shoes, there's a lot of walking. Cancellation deadline is May 3.

"Phantom of the Opera"

Kennedy Center, Washington, DC

For nearly two decades, Andrew Lloyd Webber's "the Phantom of the Opera" has been weaving its magical spell over sold-out houses around the world. Now this musical phenomenon is back at the Kennedy Center and we've got rear center orchestra seats for the daytime show and front center orchestra seats for the evening show! The show features some of the most lavish sets, costumes and special effects ever created for the stage. Through one treasured song after another - including "The Music of the Night," "Masquerade," and the thrilling title number- the tragic love story unfolds between a shadowy, disfigured composer and his muse, a beautiful opera singer. We will arrive at the Kennedy Center in time for you to eat at one of the restaurants or you can bring your own to eat on the bus or on the terrace. Cancellation deadline is May 17th.
